

EAST ENDMIDLAND MEN
BEGIN TERMS

Thomas F. Smith, colored, and Robert Parris, also colored, of Midland, reported at the Beaver county jail yesterday afternoon to begin the sentence imposed on them by the county courts. Smith and Parris were convicted of conducting a gambling house in Midland, and Smith was sentenced to pay a heavy fine and six months in the Allegheny county workhouse. Parris was fined and given a four months' term in the county jail.

Mid Week Services.
Mid-week prayer services will be held tonight in the churches of this section of the city. Meetings will be in charge of the respective pastors.

OAKLAND CHURCH MEETINGS CLOSE

Revival services which have been in progress for the past three weeks came to a close last night in the Oakland Free Methodist church. The sermon was delivered by Miss Eva Young, Pittsburgh conference evangelist. The meetings were the most successful in the history of the church, according to a statement made today by the pastor, Rev. John Douglass. Members of the church will attend the district quarterly meeting which will open Thursday night in the Avondale church.

GLEE CLUB WILL GIVE CONCERT

Plans have been completed for an entertainment to be held Friday night in the Tabernacle Church of Christ under the auspices of the Men's club by the Koppel Glee club. The organization, which is composed of 20 members, recently played to a packed house at East Palestine. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken. Lodgement to Meet. Members of Pennova lodge, No. 880, I. O. O. F. will meet tomorrow night in the Hill building, Mulberry street. Routine business will be transacted.

Class Meeting Scheduled.

Members of class No. 14, of the Second Presbyterian church, will meet Friday night in the church parlors. Hostesses will be: Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. James McGrew and Mrs. George Smith.

Severs Land Ties for Sea.

After selling all his ancestral estates in order to sever every tie with the land so that he might make his seas and his boat his home, Capt. Allan Gerhardt is touring the waters of the world. He has just arrived in Sava after having crossed the Atlantic and Pacific oceans in his 34-foot cutter yacht. During his 94 days in crossing the Atlantic he did not see land, seldom viewed a sail, and encountered two violent hurricanes. Passing through the Panama Canal he visited Gallapagos, Gambler, Marquesas, Tuamotu, Tahiti, Borabora, Pago Pago and Apia. Warned of the dangers near Wallis, he went there and was wrecked, but liked the simple-hearted people so well that he remained four months.

A three-months-old baby of Grimsby, England, is reported to have died of cancer.

Conquers Bad Breath and is Popular Again

"The day I started taking Carter's Little Liver Pills," says Mr. John A. Perry of New York City, "my habitual bad breath and bad stomach stopped. I strongly recommend them to all those afflicted with these nasty troubles. I assure you that my own case was a bad one, causing me untold embarrassment, and Carter's helped me right from the start."

Bad breath comes from sour stomach and can usually be relieved quickly by Carter's Little Liver Pills.

They are wonderful for constipation, sick headache and indigestion and they physic the system in a mild and gentle manner, no bad after effects.

Recommended and for sale by all drug stores.

CAST SELECTED FOR DE MOLAY
MUSICAL SHOW

Earl Reese Plays Lead in "Here's Your Hat."

TWO-DAY BILL
Production Will be Staged Monday and Tuesday.

Leading characters in the musical comedy, "Here's Your Hat," to be presented in the High School auditorium, Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week under auspices of Harding chapter, Order of DeMolay, were announced today.

Earl Reese plays the part of Jack Winters who "fakes" an imaginary marriage in order to secure the wealth of his uncle, Colonel Winters, whose part is essayed by Glenn Roberts. Jack writes his uncle repeatedly for staggering amounts of money which he is expending in purchasing costly gifts for Ann Marshall, whose part is played by Miss Sara Heddle-ston.

Pelly Ross, a society deb, emulated
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kingston, of Cincinnati were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Langdon of Midland avenue during the week-end.

Miss Gladys Borchert of Penn avenue spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Lober of Crafton. Miss Borchert attended the dance at the Chartiers club of Crafton Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parsons and son Edward and daughters, Ruth, Mildred, Audrey and Helen, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mon-gomery and family of Warren, O.

P. C. Eldemiller, of Beaver avenue, spent the week-end with his mother near Ellwood City, Pa.

Mrs. Bernice Porter, of Beaver, Pa., was a Midland visitor on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. R. Rapp of Midland avenue was a visitor in New Brighton on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. A. Borchert, of Penn avenue, was an East Liverpool visitor on Monday.

by Miss Margt. at Ann Blake, entertains at a week-end party at which
Ann Marshall, Jack Winters, Lester Davis, Nancy Ross, Grumpy Ross and others are guests. Paul Hannahs has the role of Lester Davis while Miss Edith Fox and William Cox are Nancy Ross and Grumpy Ross, respectively.

Colonel Winters appears unexpectedly at the party and his nephew, Jack, attempts to secure his "wife" and "children." Considerable humor is brought about in this act by two detectives, "This" and "That," played by William Hayes and Edwin Mc-Graw.

Daisy Dur b, who is Mrs. Glenn Roberts, attempts to take charge of the household and causes many a laugh in her dealing with the detectives.
Nannette, a French maid, and Thomas, the butler, are forever being worried about Daisy but they finally decide to forget about it and they do but they later appear in a very effective love scene.

Snappy choruses, among them the famous "Kick Bottom" will be among the important details which help to put over "Here's Your Hat," in great style.

THREE-DAY COLDS
THREATEN LUNGS

A cough or cold that hangs on after the third day is a threat.

Do something! Don't wait until the cold has run its course—from your head to your throat—from throat to chest or bronchial tubes. Break up your cold before it settles in this "danger zone;" for inflammation spreads, and your bronchial tubes lead directly into your lungs!

Quickly and unflinchingly Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops a cough and drives out the cold. Hospital-Proved Medicine—not just a "cough syrup!"

If you are catching cold; if you have a "head cold"; if your chest is tight; if you have a cough—even if bronchitis has developed—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at once. It has relieved more colds and coughs than any other medicine in the world.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is used by hospital clinics and leading physicians.
Pleasant, safe and effective for children and grown people. At all drug

A Bag Of Money At Geneva

Here is a little story told by Sir Herbert Ames, treasurer of the League of Nations, giving a more human glimpse than we usually get of that organization.

Some of the member-nations have trouble paying their dues. Every fall, just before the assembly meets at Geneva, there is a rush to settle, so as to avoid mention on the black list.

At such a time the representative of Poland came to Sir Herbert, at the last possible minute, and announced that he was ready to pay up. The treasurer, who knew the difficulties Poland was having with her currency, asked if he had a draft on New York. No, we can't buy American drafts at the exchange rate," was the reply. "But we have something just as good."

He opened a black bag and dumper out on the table a big pile of American currency, of all denominations and conditions. The treasurer called a couple of clerks to count it. They found a total of $63,728.

"You're still 40 cents short," said Sir Herbert.

"I've got it," grinned the visitor. He pulled some small change out of his pocket, a quarter, a dime and a nickel, and laid it on the desk.

All that money had been turned into the Polish treasury for this very purpose, by Poles who had received it from relatives in the United States. When the government told them of its predicament, they parted with their hoarded bills and coins to save the national honor at Geneva.

Not the only time, by the way, that American money has saved the honor of another nation—a fact the beneficiaries sometimes forget.

Recognition For Prunes

With a $300,000 advertising campaign launched in its behalf, the prune leaves the ranks of humble fruits and joins the aristocrats. It has long been recognized as a wholesome fruit. When properly prepared, it is also a palatable one. Prunes, like mother-in-law, are not half so bad as the jokesmiths have pretended all these years. It was perhaps only its inevitability on the boarding house breakfast table, along with the knowledge that it was a cheap fruit, that made the prune so trying to the human soul.

Once let the advertising campaign make itself felt, with appetizing pictures of prunes and elegant prune dishes, with a prune slogan and prune recipes on every hand, and the curse will be removed. The popularized prunes may cost a little more, but they will be finer, perhaps, and therefore worth the cost.

A cheerful feature of this prospect is the fact that the well known prune really is good for us, though we may have our doubts about the prune soup to which Prince William of Sweden is said to be addicted.

Brooms For Health

Last year there was a gain of 26 per cent in the number of brooms sold in the United States. Manufacturers say women are going in more for sweeping. And that, in turn, has a curious reason:

Women are pushing brooms to make them fashionably slender. Physical advisers have been telling them, in women's clubs and over the radio and in newspapers, that sweeping is a fine exercise for developing a boyish figure.

Just why any woman should want a boyish figure is something that no man can understand. But they do; and that being the case, they had better do it by sweeping floors than dieting themselves into a physical decline. Even a boyish figure is endurable in a woman, if it means health.

Scrubbing, too, ought to help. Not necessarily with a brush, which makes mussy work, but with a mop, which gives some of the beneficial effects of paddling a canoe. Why don't the mop manufacturers get busy?

An Absentee Mayor

Beverly Hills, Cal., which was rash enough to elect a mayor named Will Rogers, now threatens to fire him because he is all the time gallivanting around the country, talking and chewing gum, when he ought to be at home on the job.

Rogers retorts that they don't dare let him out, because he knows too much on them; and if they make any trouble, he'll "rock the very foundations of the screen, oil and realtor business."

Sounds to us like blackmail. But you never can tell how far a politician will go to keep his job.

That orphaned California community deserves sympathy. If it really wants to get even with Mayor Rogers, our suggestion is to pay him for staying away, but pay no more attention to him.

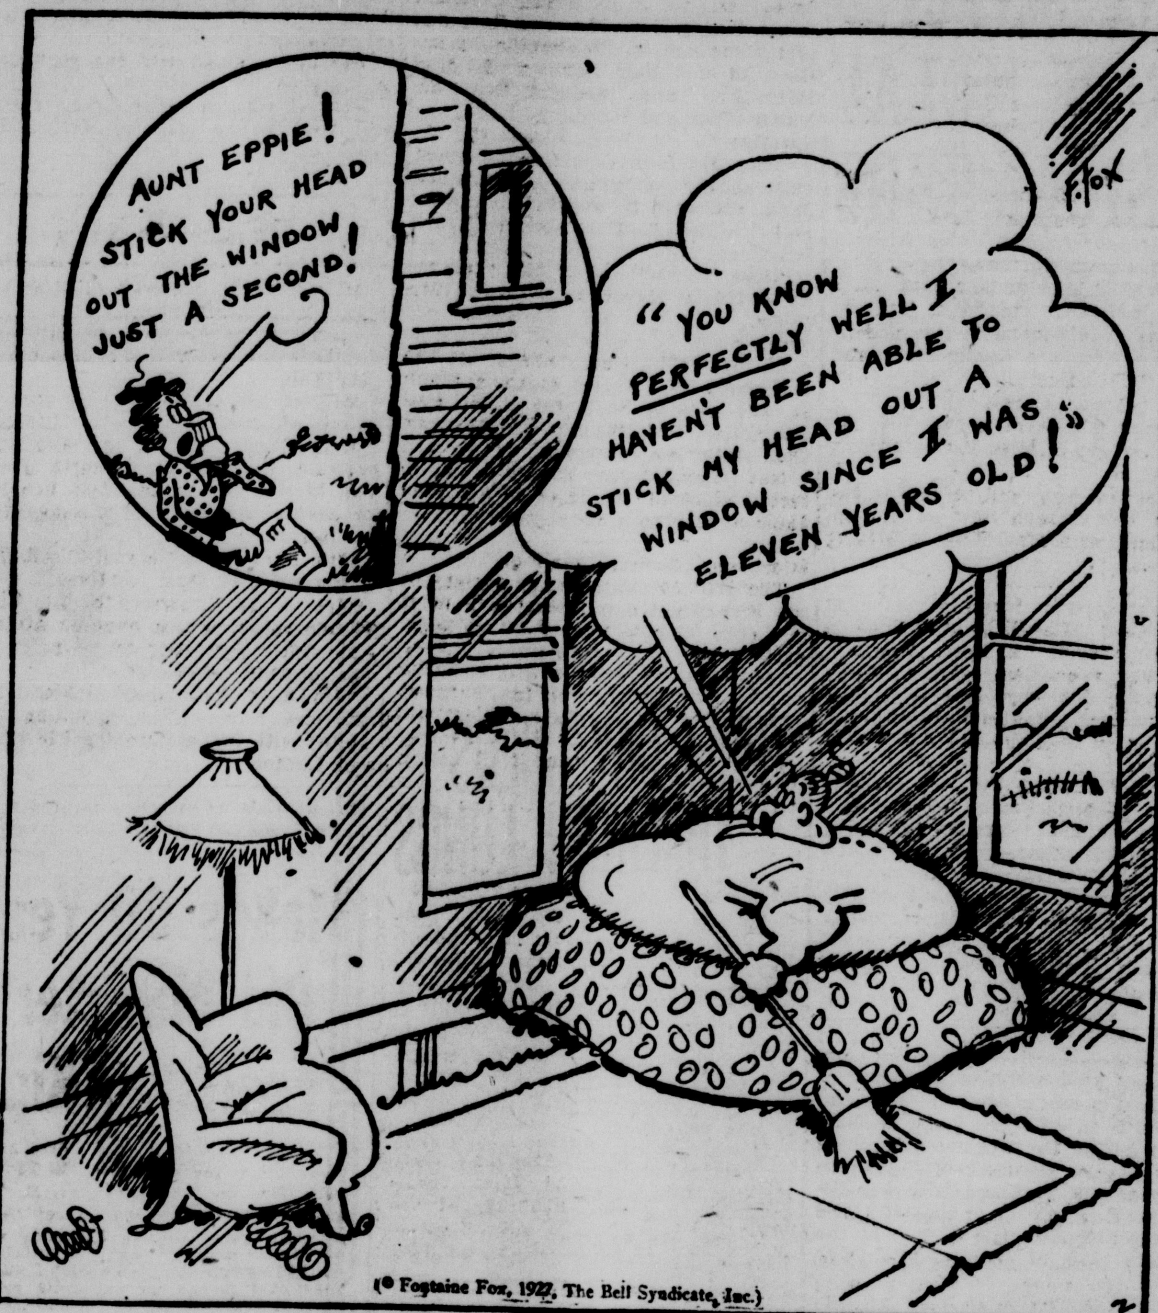

Profits From Library Fines

Anybody who has felt "that guiltiest feeling" when returning over-due books to a public library may now overcome it with a clear conscience. The Cleveland Public Library reports that the small fines paid on books kept overtime total more than $45,000 a year. This money is sufficient to pay for heating and lighting the main library and all its branches, and to pay two weeks' salary to its employees.

The guilty patron is really doing his bit to support the library.

Spending less public money is just as good as cutting taxes, but most legislators can't see it that way.

My Favorite Stories

By IRVIN S. COBB

HOLDING SOMETHING IN RESERVE

Either the mule which drew the decrepit wagon along the sandy road through the Georgia pine-barrens was balky or, perhaps, merely was conservative by nature. Despite prayers, please, curses and commands from the lanky Georgian who drove him—each being accompanied by a terrific blow with a long heavy club—the obstinate animal merely blinked its eyes and continued to amble at the slowest of all possible gaits.

The city man, who came along just now in his automobile, drew up to watch the spectacle. Ordinarily he was a humane man and believed in treating dumb brutes with all possible kindness. But the sight of this long-eared malingerer made him forget his sentiments.

"My friend," he said, "I marvel at your patience. Is that beast, by any chance, sick?"

The Cracker shook his head: "Nam sub," he answered, "there ain't nothin' ailin' him. This is jest the way he acts all the time. Even here on the flat land I have to keep beatin' him all the time this a-way to make him move along a-tail."

"Why don't you climb down out of that wagon and kick him in the stomach?"

"Naw, I reckon not. You see, I'm savin' that up for the hill yonder."

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, March 2.—There are a number of hotels in the Forties whose patronage is almost exclusively chorus girls. The hotels draw, like their occupants, through the morning and there is little show of life until around noon.

Many patrons fail to observe the trifling conventionalities, such as cooking breakfast in the room, drying stockings at street window sills or bursting into song after midnight. There is an easy club-like camaraderie after the theatre.

Kimonoed figures flit through halls, visiting this friend and the other. And dogs are not welcome. The management does not look askance at those who have been out cafe-ing and come in potted like geraniums at sunrise.

Now and then tragedy stalks the dingy corridors. There is a piercing scream, surging crowd, clanking ambulance and some unfortunate girl "tired of it all," is rushed to a hospital with acid seared lips. But the overtime is carelessly gaily.

It is the chorus girl's lot to live for the moment. She becomes a chronic sufferer of Fate. Two weeks' rehearsals and a week's run may end in a sudden closing and the weary quest for a new job. These things she accepts with the lightness of champagne foam.

Their brittle, blasé talk, I believe, is a mere gesture to hide emotions. There are few winners and no class has a greater sympathy for those in adversity. The consuming fear of the chorus girl is to return home a failure.

Actors and actresses are often notoriously bad pay as bankrupt courts reveal, but the chorus girl is not. It is recorded that the famous Madam Bartholdi, whose hotel was long their haven, lost only three chorus girl accounts. Theatrical hotels will trust them for many weeks when they are jobless.

There is justification for New York's police force being hailed as "the finest." Visitors are always impressed by their magnificent physique and eye appearance. The most aristocratic figures are those of the Fifth Avenue traffic squad. They have a dignified courtesy, and they seem entirely unimpressed by fine ladies' blandishments. They keep their heads. The Broadway crowd has a collegiate look. They are younger. The mounted men on sleek carriage chargers in Central Park are true cavaliers. They have the dash of heroes in pages of romance. It is in the day's work to rescue some white-faced lady whose mount bolts on the bridge path. For certain rugged districts there are "flaties" who talk out of the side of the mouth at a maintain a hard-boiled manner, but they are needed. The police parade in New York offers the finest spectacle of physical manhood to be found on the globe.

The above, in a fashion, is turning a wan cheek to a crossing cop at 42nd and Fifth Avenue at noon yesterday, who, when I jockeyed back and forth to reach a safety "isle," called out: "Will a wheel chair be of service?" That, in three words, was a dirty dig.

Maxwell Bodenheim is said to run second to the versatile Roy McCordell as a contest prize winner. McCordell has garnered a home, several automobiles and more than 25,000 winning prizes. Bodenheim, who has won some recognition as a writer, enters many contests under various names and is said to have copied many rewards—especially among tabloid contests.

Every cune in awhile a hobo writer hobs up for recognition—and seems to get it. By the simple process of writing language that should be exurgated and of them's not discussed in polite society. The latest in New York is a hobo lecturer who is asking $100 for drawing room "readings." How the hay cats must chuckle over their McIligan stew!

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Air Medicine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—The latest thing in therapeutics is the air doctor. He is the physician who will see to it that no man undertakes to fly an airplane who is not physically qualified to risk his own life and the lives of those who may be riding with him. He is not the surgeon who patches up or repairs the victims of aviation accidents; he is a scientist who will prevent accidents.

That physical fitness is the most important qualification of a pilot—more important even than courage or a quick and dependable mentality—is proved by records of the World War. During the first year when the British had no special physical examination for aviators, an analysis of casualties and fatalities showed the most surprising results.

Out of every 100 aviators killed, two were killed by Germans, eight by defective planes or motors, thirty by defects of training, and sixty as a consequence of their own physical defects. More than one-half the fatalities were due to the fact that men were trying to fly planes who did not have the fundamental qualifications for the job. During the second year of the war, after the institution of more careful physical examinations and physical supervision of the flyers, the sixty was reduced to twenty, and in the third year the twenty was cut down to twelve. Ultimately, it is to be expected, nobody will be piloting a plane who is not physically fitted to do so, and unnecessary accidents will be practically eliminated.

The United States Air Corps fatalities have been reduced from one to every 950 hours of flying time to one to nearly 4000 hours of flying time, and this reduction is credited largely to more careful physical selection and care of pilots.

Special Courses in Schools.

The Aeronautics branch of the department of commerce, which is headed by Assistant Secretary William P. McCracken, Jr., has as its medical director Dr. Louis H. Bauer who is now opening negotiations for the establishment of air medicine courses in the leading medical schools of the country. As commercial aeronautics expands, it will be necessary for the general practitioners of the future to have a knowledge of air medicine. Moreover, physicians will not only be needed to conduct the special examinations required by the Department of Commerce in accordance with the Air Commerce Act of 1926, of all applicants for a Federal flyer's license, but eventually will be needed at commercial flying fields to classify and supervise aviators from a physical standpoint.

Dr. Bauer says that the aviator requires severe physical qualifications peculiar to his profession. For example, not only must he have a good vision particularly for colors but he must have normal visual fields. That is, he must be able to see out of the corner of his eye when looking straight ahead in order to pick up other planes. He must be able to judge distances accurately. This is highly important in flying information where planes are but a few feet apart, and in landing when he must be able to judge his distance from the ground, trees, telegraph poles and other planes.

He must have a certain amount of what is known as accommodation, which is the ability to adjust his focus to far, to near, and back again in order to see at a distance and then look at his map or instrument board. He must have approximately normal balance between the groups of the muscles controlling the actions of the eyes, or otherwise he may, under fatigue or lack of oxygen at high altitude, see double or become inattentive and careless due to strain incident to maintaining single vision.

Besides a general physical soundness, the aviator must have a nervous system which is capable of withstanding the unusual stresses and strains of flying. Experience has shown that only flyers who possess such a sound nervous system last very long as aviators. To make the examination for this the physician must have a knowledge of ophthalmology or diseases and functions of the eye and an intimate knowledge of the nervous system.

Designated By Secretary. Physicians to conduct these examinations will be designated by the Secretary of Commerce in accordance with the air commerce regulations of 1923. Forty-two of them have already been named, representing almost every State and the District of Columbia. U-

Ultimately, it is planned, there will be a designated physician in every city and town where there is aeronautic activity or any considerable number of pilots, in order that the flyers will not have to go any great distance for an examination.

In addition, all Army and Navy flight surgeons are now qualified to make the examinations, and arrangements are also being made to have the tests made at certain Marine hospitals.

SLEEP WELL!

Let Nature Help!

WHEN you sleep heavily all night, and wake in the morning feeling as tired as when you went to bed—Look to your stomach!

That over-tired feeling is only a little thing, but it points to trouble ahead if you don't watch out.

It means that your liver is sluggish, your bowels are getting lazy. There's some waste matter gathering in your stomach, putting off, and poisoning your system. Let Nature put you right!

Dillingham's Plant Juice is made from herbs, roots and plants into which Nature has put the very things you need. There are no dangerous mineral drugs—nothing to harm the most sensitive stomach—and it's easy and pleasant to take.

It will encourage your liver and bowels to do their proper work; it will restore your old-time brightness and pep, and bring back the blessed gift of restful sleep.

Ask your druggist for the original Dillingham's Plant Juice, for over thirty years the friend of tired people.

Careless Washing Spoils the Hair

The simple hair styles of today make beautiful hair a necessity.

Luckily, beautiful hair is now easily obtained. It is simply a matter of shampooing.

Proper shampooing makes the hair soft and silky. It brings out all the real life and lustre, all the natural wave and color, and leaves it fresh looking, glossy and bright.

While your hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why discriminating women, everywhere, now use Multisilf Coconut Oil Shampoo. This clear, pure and entirely greaseless product brings out all the real beauty of the hair and cannot possibly injure.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

It leaves the hair soft and easy to manage and makes it fairly sparkle with new life, gloss and lustre.

You can get Multisilf Coconut Oil Shampoo at any drug store.

A four-ounce bottle lasts for months

Makes 59 Year Old Minister "Feel Like a Kid"

"Words fail to express the deep gratitude I feel for what ARJUM Tablets have done for me," says Rev. H. McKenna of Teague, Texas. "They begin to work upon entering the body and hit the spot every dose. I noticed a marked change the first week. I am 59 years old and everybody tells me I look so well. I reply: 'I am taking ARJUM Tablets.' I shall make every effort to spread the good news that there is at last help from rundown condition. I feel like a kid, sleep is more restful, and am hungry at each meal—all this is the result of ARJUM. I have never found anything so good."

Overworked, sluggish kidneys, bladder weakness and prostate gland trouble may bring on so many distressing ailments which often lead to serious and perhaps fatal diseases that every sufferer from lame back, rheumatic twinges, dizziness, pains in the head, sour stomach, frequent getting up at night, nervous weakness and lack of nerve force should start at once to get into his system the marvelous restorative Radium power supplied by ARJUM.

This produces a vitalizing, internal exercise helping to renew proper, normal, youthful action, just as nature intended.

Amazing testimony of physicians and users give convincing proof of the remarkable power of ARJUM to restore health and strength to the sick and afflicted. A multitude of alarming symptoms often quickly disappears. You should see and feel a truly startling improvement in yourself each day.

NOTE: The Associated Radium Chemists, Inc. of New York, guarantee successful and satisfactory results from its progressive use in every case, or money refunded, and also that a definite quantity of genuine radium is used in its preparation. ARJUM is easy and economical to take and may now be readily obtained in this city from any good druggist.

LATIMER REPORTS

American Commander Insists Rumors are False.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A sweeping denial was made by the state department today of published reports that some American marines had been killed and wounded in fighting with Nicaraguan liberals.

So far as the state department has been advised by Admiral J. K. Latimer, the American commander of the occupational forces, not a single American marine or bluejacket has been killed in any "engagements" with the Nicaraguan revolutionists, it was claimed. Published reports stated there have been American casualties which have been concealed by the censorship established by Latimer.

Rear Admiral E. W. Eberle, chief of operations, to whom Latimer reports direct, said "reports of American casualties in Nicaragua are absolutely false."

CROWD HEARS DR. F. G. FOWLER

Frederick J. Balmond Sings at Methodist Services.

Official board members will be special guests at the revival service in the First Methodist Episcopal church tonight. Dr. Frank Fowler, pastor, will preach.

Music will be directed by Frederick J. Balmond. Second of a series of sermons on the subject, "Prayer," was delivered by Dr. Fowler last night. Women of the church attended the services in a body. In addition to leading the song service, Mr. Balmond rendered solos.

In his sermon, Dr. Fowler quoted Francis Bacon, who said "Nature can only be controlled by being obeyed." He followed with another quotation from P. Core, "The philosophy of prayer lies in the same law of correspondence." He concluded:

"d where we obey nature, all the laws of nature, how at our command. Likewise when we obey God all the unlimited resources of God are at our beck and command. Then what a wonderful institution prayer is. There is only one condition if we would command it in its fullness and that is that we do the will of God."

PENSION FUND MARK PASSED

East Liverpool Zone Presbyterians Pledge $20,047.

Presbyterians in the East Liverpool division exceeded their $18,976 quota in the proposed $15,000,000 new pension fund for retired ministers of the denomination by more than $1,000 according to final reports made at a district dinner in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Steubenville, last evening.

Subscriptions, collected by the 11 congregations making up this division, totaled $20,047. Churches of the district raised approximately $42,000. More than 100 workers representing 21 churches in the Presbytery attended the meeting. H. D. Wininger, head of the Steubenville Pottery company and campaign chairman in the Steubenville district, presided. Rev. Lester S. Evans, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cambridge, and Dr. Donald MacLeod, pastor of the First church of this city, made addresses.

Reports of the 11 churches of the East Liverpool division submitted were as follows: First church East Liverpool, $6,411; Curry Memorial, $125; Emmanuel Presbyterian, $1,700; Longs Run, $245; Second church, $525; Bethesda, $813; Salfineville, $522; Monroeville, $300; Bethel, $705; First church, Wellsville, $7,000; Second church, Wellsville, $1,050.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, March 2.—Moderate reactions in stock prices accompanied the liberal offerings of active railroad and industrial stocks in early trading today. The general trend of the market was downward, with market leaders like General Motors and Baldwin losing a point or two. But exceptional strength was displayed by American smelting and some of the other newcomers to the bullish list, and these stocks were able to move against the trend.

The professionals in the financial district renewed their efforts for a break in stock prices. Heavy offerings on the floor of the exchange bent the list downward from 2 to 4 points in the first period. But the offerings were well-labored, and losses in the well-known stocks were moderate.

Speculative interest was again withdrawn from the railroad stocks and concentrated on the industrial.

The oil freely sold on the new production pool for crude oil. Houston declined 4 cents and Phillips petroleum fell to a new low for the movement. U. S. Steel and the leading independent steel shares displayed conspicuous strength, to the accompaniment of reports of increasing buying of finished steel and higher pig iron prices. The copper was also firm, under the lead of American Smelting.

PRISON LABOR MAY BUILD NEW CELLS IN PEN

Appropriation Available For Improvements at Columbus.

DONAHEY TO O. K.

No Agreement Reached on Pending Taxation Measures.

COLUMBUS, O., March 2.—Plans for building a new cell block, with prison labor, to relieve the congested population at Ohio penitentiary were being rushed today as a result of action of the state legislature in making available immediately an appropriation of $250,000 for erection of a new cell block and prison chapel. Governor Vic Donahey is expected to approve this legislative appropriation which is part of the Williamson $4,200,000 supplemental appropriation bill, senate amendments to which were concurred in by the house late Tuesday by a vote of 133 to 0.

The new cells, it was stated, will provide accommodations for about 500 prisoners.

The Williamson bill, also contains an appropriation of $16,783 for operating expenses for the state board of real estate examiners. Considerable opposition to this appropriation was voiced in the house.

The governor has not indicated whether he will veto this item. He vetoed the bill, passed two years ago, providing for these examiners but the legislature re-passed it over his veto.

Call Another Caucus. Legislators today had not reached an agreement relative to pending taxation measures. Republican senators, in caucus late Tuesday, selected a committee of 10, with Senator C. C. Bolton, Cleveland, majority floor leader, chairman, to study the situation and report, in a week, a proposed program for disposing of these measures.

After discussing taxation measures, without reaching an agreement in caucus late Tuesday, house Republicans decided to hold another caucus today or Thursday when effort will be made to decide upon a program. The senate passed the Roberts bill, authorizing an average increase of salaries of county commissioners from $1,200 to $1,300 a year, based upon population and tax duplicates in the various counties, and the Bender bill, providing for a centralized purchasing agency for county offices. These measures now go to the house.

The senate judiciary committee recommended passage of the Reberman bill seeking to make void all labor contracts prohibiting either employer or employees from joining labor unions.

The house will be asked to concur in the action of the senate which adopted the Johnson resolution providing for submission to Ohio voters next November of a proposed amendment to the state constitution authorizing an accused person, under certain conditions, to waive the formality of a grand jury indictment.

Twice the senate has postponed its vote on the question of passing the Krumler bill increasing the tax on utilities. A vote may not be taken until after the special committee of 10 reports next week.

The senate judiciary committee recommended passage of the Wise bill providing for a court of domestic relations in Stark county.

R. Brent Keyser, Aged 67, Financier, Dies in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, March 2.—R. Brent Keyser, Baltimore financier and former president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, died at his home early today after a heart attack. He was 67 years old.

Keyser occupied a prominent place in the financial and industrial life of Baltimore for many years. His widow, who is a direct descendant of James McHenry, secretary of war in the cabinet of George Washington, and a daughter survive.

So-called Nameless War Vet Denounced As "Draft Dodger"

WASHINGTON, March 2.—"Jerry Tarbot," the so-called nameless and memory-less war veteran whose efforts to re-establish his identity have attracted nationwide attention, was denounced as "a draft dodger and a fake" today by Representative Royal Johnson (P) of South Dakota, chairman of the house committee on veterans' relief, during a hearing on a bill to award Tarbot government compensation.

Johnson asserted he made his statements advisedly and upon the strength of a long investigation conducted by department of justice agents.

Tarbot's real name, Johnson said, is Alexander Dubois, and his father is now working in a hotel in Cuba. His mother, nee Bridget Riley, is dead, according to the federal agents' investigation, Johnson said.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES HERE

Three City Churches Observe Beginning of Lent.

Services in observance of Ash Wednesday, marking the beginning of Lent, were held in three East Liverpool churches today.

Mass was celebrated in the St. Aloysius Catholic church at 8 o'clock this morning. Blessing and distribution of ashes will take place at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Evening services will be held semi-weekly throughout the Lenten season.

Services in St. Stephen's Episcopal church included Holy communion and a sermon at 10 o'clock this morning. Prayer and sermon by the rector, Rev. R. K. Caulk, will form the service at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Rev. C. F. Stent of Steubenville, will preach at a special service which will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Special English services will be held at 7:45 o'clock tonight and every Wednesday evening until Easter in St. John's Lutheran church. Rev. J. G. Reinartz, D.D., pastor, will preach on "The Lenten Call to Repentance" at tonight's service. All church social activities will be suspended during Lent.

THROUGH CHEERS BABE RUTH ON $100,000 TRIP

Bambino, Looking Fit, Arrives in New York.

PHONES RUPPERT

King of Swat Inquires About Wife Who is Ill.

By DAVIS J. WASH.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Babe Ruth, looking fit and declaring he never was in better shape, arrived on the Twentieth Century today from the west and announced that he would see Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, "about that salary matter" this afternoon.

Ruth is demanding a two-year contract at $100,000 a year. He was paid $52,000 last season.

"I'm determined to make Jake see that I'm worth $100,000 per," said the famous slugger.

A tremendous crowd—numbering at least several thousand—was at the station to greet and cheer the Bambino.

Called Hospital.

The first thing that Babe did when he reached McGovern's was to call the hospital where his wife is ill and ask her condition. He then called Ruppert and Edward Barrow, the club's business manager, and arranged for a conference to talk over the disputed contract, this afternoon. He said Ruppert seemed "very cordial" over the phone.

He told the numerous newspaper writers who accompanied him that he preferred not to discuss the contract until after the conference.

"My letter to Col. Ruppert speaks for itself," he said.

Ruth said he would not sign a one-year contract under any circumstances, and that he would not go to the Yankees' southern training camp until he had been signed up. He revealed how his $12,000 annual contract was decided upon five years ago.

"We flipped a coin for it," he said. "But I wouldn't do that this time. I might lose."

The Bambino's condition appeared to be almost perfect, and no superfluities were visible. Ruth trained in the baggage car of his train most of the way across the continent, giving it up only for Chicago on. He was greeted at the gymnasium by a large bouquet of roses from his youngest daughter who wished "love and success for Daddy."

Says He Feels "Great."

The crowd that gathered to meet Ruth was so great that it was necessary to rope off an aisle so that he could come through from the train to his automobile.

A great cheer went up from the assembled throng when the Babe, attired nattily in a light polo coat and brown cap, flipped easily from the steps of the train.

"I'm in great shape, fellows," said Ruth to a battalion of newspapermen who immediately surrounded him and held him up for 15 minutes asking questions.

"Are you going to get that $100,000?" they asked.

"I sure am."

Asked how he felt he replied, "great," and told the reporters that he was going at once to the gymnasium of his trainer, Artie McGovern, for a 15-minute workout. He invited them to go along and look him over.

"I got by workout every day," he said. "I weigh only 221 pounds and I never felt better in my life."

Learns How to Pose.

Newspaper photographers took pictures of Ruth from every angle while the crowd, jamming the station rounds, the stairways and other points of vantage, offered Ruth gratuitous remarks, such as "show 'em how to emote, Babe."

Ruth seemed more at ease at posing than ever before, probably as a result

Evangelist Japhet To Preach Tonight In Army Citadel

Evangelist M. R. Japhet, conducting revivals in the Salvation Army citadel, will preach on the subject, "The Thing That Damned East Liverpool," Wednesday evening. The service last evening was largely attended.

ROUTE MARKING PARLEY TOPIC

Representatives of the roads and street committee of the Chamber of Commerce conferred with Superintendent of Route Marking Cope and R. S. Keltner, state highway department superintendent in Columbiana county, in the Chamber's rooms in the Little building yesterday regarding the new plan of designating federal and state roads.

Routes for these roads were marked on maps carried by Cope. These maps will be submitted to the state highway department for approval.

Brigadier General Upton Dies.

HONOLULU, March 2.—Brigadier General Upton, commander of the Sixteenth infantry brigade, was dead here today after a short illness.

of his movie experience at Hollywood. It was expected that after Ruth works out at McGovern's he will go at once to St. Vincent's hospital where his wife is seriously ill.

Shortly after noon the Babe went into conference with Ruppert and Barrow, and the big battle was on. Previously he spent three quarters of an hour with his wife in the hospital. He said she would be in bed for some time, but that her condition was not serious.

INCOME TAX MAN ON JOB

Office in Postoffice Building Open Daily Until March 15.

For the accommodation of East Liverpool persons who are required to make returns on their 1926 earnings, the income tax collector's office in the basement of the postoffice will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily until March 15, it was announced today.

The office will be in charge of Samuel Grove, Jr., Salem, deputy internal revenue collector in Columbiana county since the resignation of Fred George, Madison township, county treasurer elect. Grove will be assisted by O. E. Long, deputy collector of Cleveland, who arrived here today. Grove plans to be at his East Liverpool office each Wednesday after March 15.

Unmarried men, whose earnings in 1926, exceeded $1,500, and married men with incomes of more than $3,500 are required to file returns. An additional exemption of $400 is allowed for each child or other dependent.

Returns must be filed not later than March 15, although the tax payments may be made in quarterly installments—March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15.

India will develop its motor freight transport system to the interior country.

Grim Pyorrhea gets 4 out of 5

All around you are people doomed, through carelessness, to contract Pyorrhea. Four persons out of five past forty (and many younger) are its victims.

Carelessness—neglect of teeth and gums—is the cause. And the results, too often, are loss of teeth, neuritis, rheumatism, or other serious diseases.

And yet, if you start in time, it is so easy to prevent. See your dentist twice a year. And start using Forhan's for the gums.

Used regularly and in time, Forhan's prevents Pyorrhea or checks it. It firms the gums and keeps them healthy. It protects teeth and keeps them white.

Ask your dentist about Forhan's, the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. It contains Forhan's Pyorrhea Liquid, used by dentists in the treatment of Pyorrhea.

WELLSVILLE SOLONS APPROVE FULTZ'S SALARY CLAIM

COUNCIL VOTES $1305 BACK PAY FOR OFFICER

John Riel Casts Only Negative Ballot.

EXPLAINS ACTION

Emergency Clause is Made Part of Ordinance.

Emergency ordinance authorizing the payment of $1,305 to John H. Fultz, chief of police, as back salary from March 20 to December 10, 1920, was passed by city council last night with one dissenting vote.

The one negative vote was cast by John Riel, who asserted that, as a member of the ordinance committee, he had not been given an opportunity to examine the ordinance before it was submitted to council for a vote.

Councilman Riel recalled the fact that President of Council Clyde Baker had instituted the rule which would compel solons to pass up all ordinances which have not been inspected by the ordinance committee.

Solicitor S. C. Luccock pointed out that this measure had been authorized and recommended by the mayor and the auditor and the councilman ruling as a result, could not be enforced.

President Baker explained that it was all right to vote on the ordinance because all members of council knew its purpose.

On a motion by Members Connor and Swearingen the ordinance was given dissenting votes to make it an emergency measure.

WILL ENTERTAIN COVENANT CLASS

Members of the Covenant Sunday school class of the Second Presbyterian church will convene on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Lewis, Clark avenue.

Mrs. Sarah Gloss will be the leader. The lesson will be from "King Saul." Mrs. George Manning will be assistant hostess.

HANLON LANDS POLICE POST

Sworn in as Regular Member of Department.

Charles Hanlon, of Center street, who has been working as extra policeman for several weeks, last night took a beat as a regular member of the Wellsville police department.

Hanlon took the civil service examination at the last meeting of the body and last night was sworn in as a regular.

Patrolman Hickman, who also has been working as an extra on the police force, but who is a regular fireman, goes back to duty at the fire station.

Hanlon, who has been a lifelong resident of the city, is well known here and his addition to the force is in accordance with police authorities' steps to bring the department up to its former high standard.

WOMEN'S GUILD MEET POSTPONED

Women's Guild of the First Methodist Episcopal church, which was scheduled to meet Thursday, will meet instead on March 17.

Officials of the organization announced the postponement today, the session being set back on account of decorating operations at the church.

20TH STREET STORM SEWER IS PLANNED

Resolution Passed on First Reading by Solons.

27-INCH OUTLET

Bonds Will be Issued to Pay Improvement.

First step toward the construction of a Twentieth street storm sewer was taken by city council last night with the enactment of a resolution declaring the improvement a necessity.

Negative votes of Solons Connor and Swearingen prevented the measure from going through as an emergency bill.

Connor voiced three reasons for voting against the measure, pointing out that citizens had voted against it at the last municipal election; that the city had no money, and that the street car company should take a prominent part in the proceedings.

Swearingen stated that in his opinion the city had insufficient funds to handle the project now.

The resolution calls for a 27-inch sewer starting at Clark avenue and running 678 feet to connect with the McQueen's Run sewer.

The cost will be paid through the issuance of bonds.

The ordinance was passed on first reading.

The solons issued a certificate of indebtedness to take care of expenses incurred in the city's fight against storm conditions last summer in the west end of the city. Bonds will be issued for $6,030, to run for six years.

The measure was passed under suspended rules.

Councilman Nicholson, of the street and light committee, announced that he had conferred with J. H. Maxwell, president of the traction company, and that an agreement had been reached to hold a conference on the proposed Main street improvement work upon the arrival of General Manager C. A. Smith from the south.

Nicholson voiced an objection to the open ditch in Lisbon street, where the Standard Oil company is placing a sewer to its new gasoline station in Third and Lisbon. Other solons pointed out that the work has been stopped because of cold weather and probably would be taken care of. No action was taken.

Mayor W. L. Fogo notified solons that merchant and business men would be warned concerning the erection of signs in front of their business places which are not more than seven feet off the ground and more than three feet from the building.

The mayor announced collections of $1,343.60 for the month of February.

Only Case Assigned for Court Room No. 2 Next Week.

Roy Wallen, of Salineville, charged with murder in the first degree, following the shooting of Rodney Oxley at his home near East Salineville last month, will go on trial before Judge W. F. Duncan in common pleas court No. 2 next Monday. Wallen's case is the only one assigned for this court next week.

It is believed that a jury will be secured from among the 75 names that have been drawn from the jury wheel, although Sheriff Wright was unable to obtain personal service upon five on this list on account of their absence from the county. This leaves 70 names from which the jury will be selected, unless those examined are either excused for cause or subjected to challenge.

SALINEVILLE

Plans are being arranged by the Salineville Kiwanis club for the inter-city meeting to be held here Tuesday, March 8, at which members of the Wellsville club will be the guests and provide the program.

The Salineville club will meet Thursday at noon in the United Presbyterian church. The attendance prize will be given by John G. Grant and the program will be sponsored by H. R. Shaff and Dr. H. M. Calvin.

There will be a directors' meeting Thursday evening in the J. L. Hutson residence.

The literary society of the Salineville High school held their contests Friday, the Junior society in the forenoon, Seniors in the afternoon. The judges for the Juniors were Rev. W. S. Martin, Mrs. Warren Hill, and Miss Newell. The judges for the Seniors were Rev. A. M. Jenkins, Mrs. Paul Reeves, and Mrs. Hart. The Junior contest was close but in the final report for both the Junior and the Seniors, the Emersonians won, 7 points to 3.

The basketball team of the Salineville high school, will play at Youngstown Friday afternoon in the district class B tournament.

WESTERN railroad managers oppose the demand of railroad conductors and train men for 7 1/2 per cent increase in wages. "The increase would total $13,000,000 a year," say officials. What if it? Increase railroad receipts and profits total many times $13,000,000 a year, and are constantly going up. The railroads, it is said, will divide part of their rapidly increasing profits among men that do the work. Railroad conductors and trainmen carry the real responsibility of railroading. They are loyal, admirable servants of the public, and underpaid.

W. L. STREET played the heavy funeral march yesterday, with variations. Two and a half million shares of stock were sold. Thoughtful citizens who have felt for the last few months that it was "about time to do something" know how Croesus, felt when he was cried out, "Oh, Solon, Solon," standing on the woodpile built to burn him up.

Railroad and industrial stocks went up. General Motors beat all price records for the year. Before you go short of that stock remember that it sells "rigidly" and other things, not automobile only. Don't gamble, you can't win.

This leaves 70 names from which the jury will be selected, unless those examined are either excused for cause or subjected to challenge.

Should it be impossible to obtain a jury from the 70 men and women who have been summoned, then other special venire will be issued. Should a jury be obtained Monday and a view of the premises taken by the jury, which will be in charge of Sheriff Wright, then testimony will begin Tuesday morning.

Wallen will accompany the jury to East Salineville, it is believed.

IS THERE NO RELIEF FROM SKIN TORTURE?

Must I Continue to Suffer the Unbearable Itching?

Are you one of those unfortunate who are going through life suffering with a skin disease, making you uncomfortable, making you less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep? You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S. S. S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in many forms of skin disease. Thousands of letters of gratitude prove its worth.

"I feel so happy for what S. S. S. has done for me that I want others to know about it. I suffered twenty long years from eczema. At times the itching was unbearable. During that time, I used all kinds of salves without receiving any real benefit. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. I was cured of this dreadful disease. I recommend S. S. S. to anyone suffering from eczema, because I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me." Clophas Forte, Soldiers and Sailors Home, Quincy, Ill.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

HERE'S A REAL EXPERIENCE

"I'm going to try to tell you how I was. I used to go to bed to toss around. Sometimes I'd dream. Then in the morning I'd feel I couldn't get up. But after I got up and drank a cup of strong coffee I just had to whip myself to work. I dragged around all day, too tired to work, too sick to enjoy anything, and came home at night without life or spirit.

Didn't Believe It

"I didn't believe medicine would do me any good, because I'd tried a lot of it. When somebody told me I had catarrh, and that if I got rid of it I'd be well, I laughed at them. I didn't believe catarrh could cause all these troubles. But my friend was insistent, and he induced me to get a bottle of World's Tonic.

BOND COMPANY FACING SUIT

Toledo Firm Defendant in Action Brought by Logan County.

LOGAN, W. Va., March 2.—Preparation for a suit against W. L. Clayton & Co., Toledo bond house for recovery of $15,250, was under way here today by John Chafin, Logan county prosecutor, under instructions from Grant P. Hall, West Virginia state tax commissioner.

The suit is designed to recover the difference between the par value of an issue of five and one-half per cent bonds of the Logan school district, and the amount actually received. The par value of the bonds is $305,000, in addition to the principal amount, the suit will seek to recover $23,227.69 in interest.

The bond deal was consummated at a meeting of the Logan district school board on Nov. 1, 1921. An audit recently completed by Hiram Hutson, of the tax commissioner's office, showed the bonds were sold for less than par and accrued interest.

The tax commissioner, in a letter to the prosecutor, states that a note dated Nov. 24, 1921, payable one year after date to the order of the Logan county district board of education for $15,250 was found in possession of E. F. Seagoe, former county superintendent of schools. This note, Hall explained, is signed W. L. Clayton & Co., and as far as the records shows, has never been paid.

The letter declared that there were found also on Seagoe, twenty-five drafts on the Dime Savings Bank of Toledo, 20 for $500 each, and five for $,000 each, payable to the order of W. L. Clayton & Co., and endorsed "Pay to the board of education of Logan district, Logan, W. Va., when and only when we receive an equal amount from the persons interested in the construction and repair of school buildings in said Logan district."

FUND WARRANTS
BEING ISSUEDCompensation Claims of 151 Women Approved by Auditor.

Warrants on the county treasurer to the value of $3,765 have just been issued by County Auditor Elmer E. Walker to 151 women of the county who are entitled to receive compensation from the mothers' pension fund.

Recently so many applications for aid from this fund were filed and there not being sufficient money in the fund, that a part of the blind pension fund was transferred by the county commissioners to the mothers' pension fund. After new applications had been investigated as to their need, and the applications were approved by Probate Judge Lodge Riddle, additional names were added to the list. Three months will elapse before another payment will be made.

Property Transfers.

Real estate transfers have been recorded as follows:

Martha J. DeFord to J. E. McAllister, 8,750 square feet of land in section 25 in West township, $1.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to catch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a dry, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain. All Druggists.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c, 30c, 60c.

Guard Against "Flu"
With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches rub on good old Musterole.

Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Toothache?

It Will Not Ache a Second After "E-Z Tooth Filler" is Applied.

"Why, it's gone already!" That's what they all say the instant after a little of "E-Z Tooth Filler" is put into the cavity. Of course it's gone, and no more thought than the tooth ought to be pulled out. It has to go, for "E-Z Tooth Filler" seals up the cavity, excludes the air, soothes the inflamed nerve and leaves no cause for an ache.

It's not merely a temporary relief either, but a real filling for the tooth which will last for weeks or months, until you get ready to have a permanent filling put in. Chew on it same as on other teeth. Any one can use it. Takes but a moment to apply.

"E-Z Tooth Filler" is for sale at your druggist's at 25c a bottle, or sent direct upon receipt of price by the Chas. A. Bertram Drug Co., 5759 N. Albany Ave., Chicago.

pitals of the United States Public Health Service.

All this is regarded as an important step in the development of commercial aviation, for people generally will not go in for this modern method of transportation until they are assured that every man who is piloting a plane is thoroughly qualified and physically fit.

General "Billy" Mitchell, however, who created such a furor in the flying world a few months ago, still maintains that real progress in aviation will not be made in this country until we have a Department of Aeronautics, instead of separate establishments under the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and the Department of Commerce.

"In every country of Europe one may go to an air port in any of the great cities and take a regular air liner for another city," he says in his latest discussion of the subject in the Aero Digest. "Where in the United States is such a thing possible? Can we not get into an air liner at New York, get our hand baggage in a compartment, and fly through to San Francisco? No! Can we get on an air liner at Chicago and fly through to New Orleans? No! Where in the United States does any passenger air service exist worthy of the name?"

"We have neither real airways, a real aeronautical weather service, nor radio control for our air lines. Every civilized country in the world except ours has these things handled and administered by a Department of Aeronautics."

General Mitchell adds that as far as national defense is concerned, the only thing we have to fear is from hostile air power. A surface battleship is as obsolete in a modern international conflict as is the now and arrow, he says, and today our coast is attached to the United States Army and Navy he characterizes as worse than useless, as they are not modern either in engines, structure, armament, or navigating methods.

During and since the war the government has spent more than two billions of dollars for aviation, according to General Mitchell, but if another war came tomorrow we would find ourselves as unprepared as we were at the start of the World War.

PINEX

Guarantees "Allenru" to Ease Rheumatic Pains and Help Reduce Swollen Joints

Money Back Says Mathews Med. Store if One Bottle of "Allenru" Doesn't Make Any Rheumatic Sufferer Rejoice.

It does not matter whether you are disabled with cursed Rheumatism or have only occasional twinges "Allenru" will ease the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and often reduce the swollen joints.

Allenru is no laggard. It starts right in at once, driving out the poisonous deposits and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that often cause Rheumatism, out of the body thru the natural channels.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years and really marvelous results have been accomplished often in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the sufferer was almost helpless.

The blessed relief this marvelous preparation quickly gives has made for it thousands of friends," says Mathews Med. Store.

High Passers Capture Double Bill With Wellsville Teams

FIVE COUNTY LEAGUE PLAYERS RE-INSTATED AT SPECIAL MEET

Rosie Cooper Stars As Girls Cop Prelim; Main Clash Is Fast

Performance of Local Forward in Girls' Game Headlines Night's Card; Wild Passes Cut Down Effectiveness of Boys' Game.

Winning both ends of a double bill here last night, East Liverpool High school passers made a clean sweep of their 1927 cage series with Wellsville, duplicating the triumphs they registered a short time ago on the down river court. Miss Minnix's girls won the preliminary by a score of 20 to 17 and the Lorahmen grabbed the main tilt, 31 to 16.

If one outstanding, individual performer of the entire night were to be selected, including both boys and girls, it is probable that the majority of votes would go to Miss Rosie Cooper, East Liverpool guard, who, transformed into a forward to take Miss Clarice Imbrie's place last night, turned in one of the most brilliant performances of the season.

She dribbled, passed, scrambled, pivoted and shot like a boy last night. She dropped in her field goals on the dead run and some of them were quite spectacular. All told she registered 14 of the 20 points made by the locals, tallying six field goals, four in the first half and two in the second, and two fouls.

Forward Irwin contributed a better performance than she did at Wellsville in the first scrap between the two teams, while the guarding of Dornick was a highlight of the visitors' game.

Guard Hill of the locals also had a big night. She tore down enemy passes with monotonous regularity and never failed to get into the scrambles.

The main clash lacked the lustre of the first engagement at Wellsville. Although fast from start to finish the work of both teams lacked its customary effectiveness. There was more wild passes than ordinarily and neither team appeared to be playing up to peak form.

Captain Jim Hamilton, wearing a brand new knee brace, which seemed to help him considerably, performed all the way with the exception of a part of the last period, and turned in five field goals. Willblood played a flashy game at forward.

Neither McConville nor Larkins were extended to any great extent, the visitors shooting practically continuously from long range.

Calhoun and Dickey were the backbone of the Orange performance although "Red" Buckley played a fine game at guard before leaving on personal fouls.

English started the scoring with a field goal and Willblood dropped in another a few seconds later. Terry missed a foul. Calhoun was fouled on a try for a field goal and was given two foul shots. He made the second one for Wellsville's first point. Terry sank a foul goal from mid-floor. Calhoun missed a field goal on the run, leaping into the air to the leather into the basket and Wellsville was one point ahead, 5 to 4. Larkins sank a foul and tied it up. McConville registered a foul and the quarter ended with the count 6 to 5 in favor of East Liverpool.

Second Quarter. Dickey missed a foul chance. Willblood, after a little skirmishing around the basket, loomed a nice center shot. Buckley missed a foul. Hamilton took a long pass for a field goal. He made another one of the same kind. Wellsville took time out. The score was East Liverpool 12, Wellsville 5. Willblood scored a field goal on a wonderful shot while on the dead run to the basket. Calhoun dropped one in from long range. The period ended with the score 14 to 7, East Liverpool.

Third Quarter. Hamilton sneaked in a field goal after a brilliant bit of passing under the basket. Willblood missed a foul. Larkins scored on a foul and Willblood followed with another. Dickey dropped in a field goal and Willblood made one of the same kind. English snatched one in from the side of the court. Terry missed a foul. Dickey was fouled on a try for a field goal, and made one of his two free line tosses. McConville missed a foul. Dickey was fouled again and missed. Willblood missed two fouls in a row. Buckley, who was charged with the foul went to the bench with four against his name. The quarter ended with the score 22 to 11, East Liverpool.

Fourth Quarter. Hamilton opened the fourth period with a foul. English and Hamilton dropped in field goals. With six minutes to go, Wellsville took time out, the count being 27 to 11.

Hornsby in Clean Up
SARASOTA, Fla., March 2.—Rogers Hornsby will bat in the clean-up position in the Giants' lineup this season, it was indicated when the slugger was assigned to the fourth position in yesterday's game between the regulars and the scrubs. The regulars won 6 to 3, but Rajah went hitless.

Bob McGraw Accepts.
CLEARWATER, Fla., March 2.—A wire from Pitcher Bob McGraw accepting the Brooklyn club's terms leaves Willie Doak the team's only holdout. And Willie is a novel member of the species. He didn't pitch last season and before signing this year, he insists on demonstrating to Manager Robinson that he retains his old-time skill.

Hard Work for Yanks.
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 2.—An extra long workout was scheduled for the Yankees today to make up for the brevity of yesterday's session, curtailed by rain.

Shalk Feels Happy.
SHREVEPORT, La., March 2.—Manager Ray Shalk of the White Sox was in high spirits today because another litter had presented himself. He is Ika Boone, last season's star walloper of the Pacific Coast League. Boone hit 380 last year.

Watches New Hitter.
AVALON, Calif., March 2.—Manager Joe McCarthy, swarthy boss of the Cubs, centered his interest today on Earl Webb, new bruin outfielder. Webb is a .350 hitter. He is not new in b-7 league circles, having played at one time for the New York Giants.

Buc Hurlers at Work.
PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 2.—The heavy battery of Pirate pitchers came in for their share of workouts here today at their training camp. Manager Donie Bush calling upon Meadows, Yde, Morrison, Aldridge and a number of rookie moundsmen to go through their paces. Bush did not wait for the arrival of the rest of his squad at the Pittsburgh camp to order his pitchers to open an intensive batting practice is on the program for the Pirates for the next few days.

Pineili Signs.
CINCINNATI, O., March 2.—August Hermann, president of the Cincinnati ball club, announced today that Babe Pineili, one of the few holdouts of this season, has "thought better of the matter" and has signed a contract. Pineili was expected to report for spring training in Orlando, Fla., within a few days.

Frisch Joins Cards.
AVALON PARK, Fla., March 2.—Interest at the training camp of the Cardinals is enlivened with the arrival of Frankie Frisch, former Giant, who will cavort at the station left vacant by Hornsby.

Sisler Back in Form.
TARPOX SPRINGS, Fla., March 2.—The amaret return to old time form of George Sisler, who in recent seasons has given only mediocre contributions with his bat, is the talk of the Browns camp. George in his initial workout swung his bludgeon with a vengeance and freely cracked the ball, indicating his sinus trouble has left him.

Job for Summa.
LAKELAND, Fla., March 2.—All members of the Cleveland Indians were on hand to start training here today with the exception of Luke and Joe Sewell and Pitcher Sherrod Smith.

TILT AT MIDLAND
The Midland high school team last night defeated the Woodlawn quint, 18 to 14, in a W. P. J. A. L. game at Midland. It was the last home league game of the Midland lads.

HORNSBY LIKES NEW YORK JOB

Confident Giants Will Win; in Excellent Spirit.

By David J. Walsh.
NEW YORK, March 2.—It seems that all is beatitude so far between John McGraw and Rogers Hornsby in the camp of the New York Giants at Sarasota, Fla., much to the irritation of those who averred it simply could not be. They saw in Hornsby a gent who might be expected to anoint our Mr. McGraw with a punch on the nose at a moment's notice, or none at all, and naturally they resent very deeply the implied rebuke to their good intentions.

As a matter of fact, it would seem that the youth has proved to be altogether untrustworthy. That is the most the youth has proved to be altogether untrustworthy. That is the most charitable thing that can be said about a young man who will start for the south as a radical and arrive as the agent of the helping hand society.

It might have been a trifle difficult to identify Rogers Hornsby as the paragon in question if I hadn't received a convincing report on the situation. The report was rendered by a veteran observer whose excess of emotion compels him to cheer an athlete every ten years, whether he needs it or not, and this is what he says:

"You man (Hornsby) looks okay to me. Has entered into training with Giants as if delighted with the change and opportunity, which of course won't hurt him any. Takes a hand in everything going on and watches and advises youngsters. He is confident Giants will win flag. Made fast running play on ground ball today and, at bat, is meeting ball nicely and is timing better than on arrival here."

"Seems to be rid of lameness at base of spine, which bothered him last year. Says he is all over that trouble. Goes about his work with zest. His spirit is excellent and, so far as I can judge, he is in as good physical form as he ever was. Agile on feet but not extending himself."

One can go behind this man's judgment about as readily as one can go behind one's heel. It is the same Hornsby, who, as manager of a world's championship club last year, blandly informed his men that they were to do their own thinking, regardless of the consequences. These, of course, might very well have been frightful. I noted that our man harangued the athletes in the club house the first day in camp, telling them of the importance of their mission and all that sort of thing. Yes, the evidence would seem to indicate that a more serious Hornsby is about to be visited upon us. At least, that is the supposition until such a time, if at all, as events prove the case to be otherwise.

Fight Results

AT NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Young Conley, of New London, and Jackie Pilkington, of Meriden, drew, ten rounds.

AT ALBANY, N. Y.—Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, won decision over Les Murray, of New Zealand, twelve rounds.

AT PORTLAND, Me.—Joe Motte, of Brockton, Mass., and Tex McEwan, of Canada, drew, twelve rounds.

AT HARRISBURG, Pa.—Corporal Izzy Schwartz, of New York, won decision over Kid Analem, of Central America, eight rounds.

AT CHICAGO — Mike Dundee, of Rock Island, defeated Bobby Garcia, of Baltimore, ten rounds.

AT LOS ANGELES—Baby Joe Ganz won on technical knockout over Dode Berot, of Seattle, in the eighth round.

RUTH-RUPPERT READY FOR TALK

NEW YORK, March 2.—The curtain was to rise here today on the first act of baseball's great extravaganza, with "Babe" Ruth, the New York Yankees, and a $100,000 contract each playing important roles.

Immediately upon his arrival from the west, the slugger was to visit his wife, seriously ill in a hospital here, after which he will proceed to the offices of the Yankees, to sound out Col. Jacob Ruppert on the most question of his desires to receive a two-year contract for $100,000 a year.

Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the club, has intimated that Ruth's demands will not be met, and the slugger declares he will accept nothing less. A compromise, however, seemed likely.

TWO MATCHES AT AMERICAN

Two matches are scheduled tonight in the American pocket billiard tournament. D. Bennett will play Bill Osborne and Creed Morris will meet Harry Daber.

WEBBER WINS FROM BENNETT

W. C. Webber defeated H. Bennett, 25 to 7, in last night's three-cushion match at the Academy. Tonight's games will bring together Crawford and Severs and White and Webb.

Fouls—Midland 5 out of 10; Woodlawn, 7 out of 12.

Dundee Feted After Victory Over Garcia

CHICAGO, March 2.—Mike Dundee, Rockford Italian, was being feted by his countrymen today following his victory over Bobby Garcia in the ten-round main event of Neils Veirup's boxing show here last night. It wasn't much of a fight, as fights go, but Mike won the decision and that was the cause for the celebration in the Italian district. Garcia, who hails from Baltimore, was easy to hit, but Mike could not stop him. Pal Moore won the decision over Kid Jap in the semi-windup.

LAUGHLIN CLUB MEET TONIGHT

Meeting of the Laughlin Athletic club will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Odd Fellows building, Sixth street.

Loop to go Through With Regular Games

Two New Players are Awarded to Salineville; Lisbon Gets Two and Columbiana One; Matticks, Firth, Shaffer, Shupe, Lippe, Back.

Five Columbiana County Amateur Basketball League players, members of the East Liverpool, Salem and Damascus teams who were "outlawed" by league managers at a meeting Sunday in Lisbon, last night were reinstated and Salineville, Lisbon, and Columbiana were voted extra strength at a special session in Lisbon, ordered by President Charles Zenge.

The league magnates went into conference at 8 o'clock in the Hostetter hotel and wound up shortly before 12 o'clock. As a result of the ruling, Shupe and Lippe remain at members of the Elks club, Matticks sticks with Salem and Firth and Shaffer continue to perform with the Damascus Quakers.

Salineville will take on two ex-high school boys, Lang and Smith, who are expected to add strength to the team. Lisbon also gets two, Rush, a former school boy, and another man, and Columbiana will be reinforced by the addition of Metz, also a former high school performer.

All league clubs were represented at the conference, Manager Ray Adam presenting the Elks' claims. It was agreed to go through with the schedule as planned.

Rickard's Ice Squad Defeated by Chicago

CHICAGO, March 2.—The fast-skating New York Rangers, Tex Rickard's crack National league hockey team, were today smarting under a 3 to 0 defeat administered at the Coliseum last night by the Chicago Blackhawks. The game lacked the pep of many previous tilts, both sides behaving in a manner so gentle that only five minor penalties were handed out. The Hawks scored one goal in each period. They were made by McVeigh, Ray and Rodden. Five thousand fans saw the game.

'Y' LOOP TEAMS NEAR FINISH

Two more games remain on the schedule of the Y. M. C. A. basketball league. On Thursday, March 3, the Seniors will play the Y-Indus club, while the Bulker Drums will tackle the Y-Indus on March 7. The Dormitory Club has been obliged to drop out of the race, several of their players having moved from town.

Jewish Heavyweight Outpoints Al Corbett

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Armand Emannel, Jewish heavyweight fighter, today held a six-round decision over Al Corbett, Sacramento. Emmanuel won every round.

Billy Gibson, manager of Gene Tunney, predicted Emmanuel was going some place in the fight game. In the meantime he will remain in Evanston, having taken position with the J. B. French Construction company, builders of the new Northwestern stadium, as an assistant superintendent on the stadium work.

Tunney Going West; To Meet With Gibson

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion, was still sending his way to San Francisco today. He is driving here from Portland and is expected to join Billy Gibson, his manager, here tomorrow.

"HAIR-GROOM"

Keeps Hair Combed, Glossy, Well-Groomed all Day

"Hair-Groom" is a light cream which costs only a few cents a jar at any drug store. Millions use it because it gives that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to the hair. It final touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions. Even stubborn, unruly or shaggy hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is greaseless; also helps grow thick, heavy, lustrous hair.

The Little White By Francis Beeding

CENTRAL PRESS ASSN

CHAPTER FIFTY-THREE.
"Heavens!" said Claypole. "Not another one? They seem to grow pretty thick in these parts. Who is it, anyway?"

"It's Patience," I stammered. "It's the Center's wife."

Claypole examined her features carefully in the light of his torch. "Yes," he said. "It's the girl with whom I saw you walking on the mountain. I recognize her now."

"Dead?" I wondered, bending down a feeling of horror and amazement creeping over me.

"She's lying in the track of the avalanche," I pointed out. "She must have been struck by a stone or something."

I was now kneeling beside her. She was dressed in the tweed coat and skirt she had worn on the day when we had climbed this same mountain and gazed from its summit at the glittering Alps. Her hat had fallen from her head and lay a few paces away.

Her hair was disordered and one thick brown tress lay across her forehead. She lay in a curiously twisted attitude, one foot doubled up beneath her, but she was breathing normally. I gently lifted the tress of hair in my hand, noting as I did so how wet and bedraggled was her whole appearance.

My action disclosed a white face with a purple bruise swelling above the right eyebrow and extending half across the forehead.

"Poor child," I murmured. "She's been struck a pretty nasty blow. Can you tell whether she has other injuries?"

Claypole made a rapid and rather more expert examination than I had done.

"I don't think there are any bones broken," he replied reassuringly; "not so far as I can tell, at any rate."

Between us we raised her and placed her in a more comfortable position.

"She'll need a doctor," said Claypole, "but I don't think it's very serious."

"What on earth are we to do?" I asked.

"Look here," said Claypole, getting to his feet, "I've no time for beauty in distress. They may be coming down at any moment."

"But, Claypole, I protested, "we can't just leave her here. She may be more seriously hurt than we know."

"There are only two things to do. Either you must leave her to recover in her own sweet way, or you must take her with you to Basle. It's not very far, only about three miles, and when you get there you must leave her at a hospital and get on yourself to Geneva. It increases your risk. In fact, you can't really afford to be hampered with a helpless woman. There's no sense in it, especially as I'm probably going to arrest her with in the next forty-eight hours. But you'll do it," he concluded wrathfully. "I'm that kind of fool myself."

"Are you really going to arrest her with the others?" I asked suddenly. Somehow I had never actually thought of Patience as a detected criminal.

"That, he said grimly, "will depend on the evidence. I'm going to make a clean sweep of all the principals. It depends on what I find in the Center's private files."

"Claypole," I said, "even though you had to hang her tomorrow, you've got to save her this morning. Leave it to me."

"Very well," he replied briskly. "We meet again at midnight tomorrow at the caves below Cartigny. The Geneva police will direct you, and I hope to be taking the Center a personally conducted tour to that delectable rendezvous."

He bade me farewell and disappeared into the darkness, leaving me alone with Patience. She was still unconscious, but her breathing was untroubled, and it did not seem to me that anything very vital was wrong with her. I judged the time to be between three and four o'clock in the morning. My watch had not recovered from the sudden descent into Count Emilio's loft, so I could not be sure. I lost no time in trying to revive Patience, but lifted her in my arms and set off along the path pointed out by Claypole.

It twisted down the hill and presently, turning the corner, I saw again the lights of the Home, some two hundred yards to my right. I made the best pace I could, but the path was winding and dark and, truth to tell, I was getting near the end of my tether. I was wet and cold, and my rough handling in the chalet by the various members of the Ring, together with my fall through the ceiling, had left me bruised and stiff. I soon began to appreciate to the full Claypole's feeling that I couldn't really afford to be hampered with a helpless woman. But there it was. Painfully I staggered on, my one thought being to get as far away from the house as possible, and wondering what on earth I should do with Patience when I reached Basle. These were my only thoughts. Otherwise, I might have attempted to analyze my emotions on meeting again in so strange a fashion the girl who had baffled and perplexed me through out our short acquaintance.

entirely in subdued colorings, soothing to the eye, and a relief from the prevailing black and white, the entire film is a series of exquisitely lovely pictures. Technicolor is the process used, and the innovation is, to our mind, notably successful.

A large supporting cast adds Mr. Fairbanks materially in his mad career, particularly outstanding being Donald Crisp as a sympathetic Scotch pirate, Sam de Grasse as villain-laf-chief, Anders Randolf as a pirate chief, and Billie Dove as the fair lady in distress. A rousing musical score adds much to the production, which was applauded by a capacity first night audience.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES STEWART

FILIBUSTERING BY SENATORS REMAINS AN UNPOPULAR TASK

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A senator filibuster never is popular, for the simple reason that the filibusters always are in a minority.

As Hiram Johnson is a pretty long stretch, and theoretically the senate can stay in session 24 hours a day continuously. It wouldn't be impossible for the majority to do it, working in relays.

Still, the fight started with three notable filibusters against the bill — Senators Phipps of Colorado, Ashurst of Arizona, and King of Utah. Working in 8-hour shifts, it was evident that they could hold the fort for quite awhile. Besides, they were assured of more or less help.

Senator Hiram Johnson of California led the majority, in the effort to force a vote.

Hiram isn't as promiscuously glib as he is said to be, but once he's started and he's lost none of his old belligerency. From the very outset it was evident that the fur was going to fly, and it did.

They began with a session of 30 hours and 30 minutes, about six ordinary sessions rolled into one.

United States senators are mostly oldish men. They began to play out and go home. Presently there wasn't a quorum. Senator Moses, presiding, ordered Sergeant-at-Arms Harry to arrest the absentees and bring 'em back by force, if necessary.

A dignified United States senator, vanked out of his beauty sleep and his warm bed and dragged by a truant officer clear down to the other end of Washington, doesn't land at the Capitol in any pleasant frame of mind toward those responsible for his humiliation. The filibusters got black looks and plenty of 'em.

It is apparent now why a filibuster gets himself disliked.

A SENATOR talking against time—nothing to say but just drooling along— isn't a lovely sight anyway.

His eyes are heavy, his lips are cracked, his voice is hoarse, he's in the last stages of exhaustion. He isn't addressing anybody—all the other senators are napping out in the cloak room and the presiding officer's asleep in his chair. But he just means on.

It may be a fine exhibition of stamina, but it isn't a speech.

This congress expires, under the constitution, March 4. That meant that the delay of 11 days inclusive, and counting Sunday, would kill the bill, so far as this congress is concerned.

Eleven days is a pretty long stretch, and theoretically the senate can stay in session 24 hours a day continuously. It wouldn't be impossible for the majority to do it, working in relays.

Still, the fight started with three notable filibusters against the bill — Senators Phipps of Colorado, Ashurst of Arizona, and King of Utah. Working in 8-hour shifts, it was evident that they could hold the fort for quite awhile. Besides, they were assured of more or less help.

FIELD OFFERS NEW FEATURES

Big Minstrel Show Comes to Ceramic on Friday.

"Extra-Headline — The North Pole Has Been Discovered." Where? Why, in the fortieth annual edition of the A. G. Field minstrels, which appear at the Ceramic theatre on Friday, March 4. The exact location of this most famous phenomenon is in the second act immediately after John Leopold and the A. G. Field orchestra have entertained the customers during a five-minute intermission.

The curtain rises. There is the North Pole just as big as life, and what's more, there is the North "tar" in all its glory. Then Harry Frankel, Jimmie Cooper and Warren Dungan appear on the stage and the excitement of the North Pole and Star is lost in the enjoyment of their rare humor and comedy.

Another of the many comedy scenes — NO senator likes a filibuster when he's the victim of one, and yet he hates to see 'em outlawed, because he never knows when he may want to conduct one himself.

His right to talk indefinitely is the one thing that makes a senator a bigger man than a member of the lower house.

In the name of efficiency, Vice President Dawes demands a senatorial gag rule, like the representatives', but there are mighty few prospects of it yet awhile.

In this year's production is "A Foot-ball Travesty," in which the Zigzags play the Blackbills and the criers leaders and singers add plenty of collegiate atmosphere. The scenes used for this act are exact reproductions of the famous Ohio Stadium.

Tanlac Succeeds When Othos Fail

Liver and Stomach Trouble of Year's Standing Relieved.

Frank Wright, 515 9th Street, Evansville, Ind., says: "Tanlac did what a lot of other medicines failed to. For a year I suffered from liver and stomach trouble. At night I tossed and turned, then I would get up in the morning tired and worn out. Nervousness upset my stomach so that I could not eat without being tortured by indigestion."

"Now all the days of suffering are gone. I feel better than ever before. My stomach never bothers me. I can eat everything without suffering. I give Tanlac all the credit for my marvelous recovery. It toned up my liver, gave me good health."

This tonic usually frees the system of poison and drives out causes of pain. Builds strength and health. Get your first bottle of Tanlac from your druggist—today! Over 40 millions bottles sold.

Don't Envy Robust Health

Get It Yourself Through Scientific Stimulation

Food is the sole source of life, of health, of vitality. A robust physique, tireless energy, the full enjoyment of every hour of living depend on the proper assimilation by your system of the foods you put into your stomach.

If the mouth, stomach and other vital glands are not doing their duty, you cannot achieve good health. You are bound to be "run down," nervous, tired all the time.

A remarkable stimulant- tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic." Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wine-glass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.
